MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

"GET 10 IN 2010"
You have to believe it to achieve it!

I would like to thank our members and guests for attending our January meeting and for welcoming our guest speaker, Mr. Mark Anthony, who captivated our large audience with his stimulating presentation!

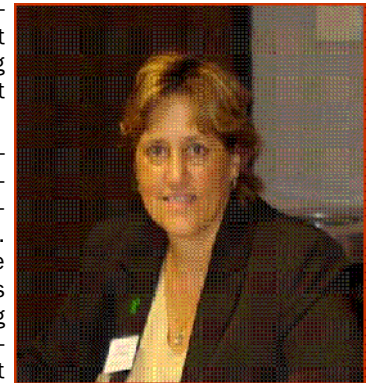

Congratulations and thank you to our members, sponsors and donors for your contributions and dedication to making our 2009 Holiday Gala a successful and fun evening! It was a pleasure to present Sue Parker, President of Space Coast Women Express Network with a check for their share of the proceeds from this initial collaborative event.

Exciting plans are currently underway for our Chapter to host a champagne brunch and a networking/table top event that will provide our members, businesses and agencies in the community the opportunity to meet others. We will be announcing the date and additional details at the February meeting.

We are in the process of forming committees for the networking brunch and our major fundraising event, Texas Hold 'Em. We welcome and encourage members to share their ideas and serve our Chapter by joining or chairing one of these committees. Please give me a call at 321 431-1850 if you would like to participate.

Please remember that the ABWA District I Conference is quickly approaching! Several of the executive board members are planning to attend this exciting conference scheduled for May 21 and 22 at the Naples

Susan Averill

Beach Hotel in Naples. For more information on conference fees, speakers and events, or to register, please visit www.abwa.org. Our hotel reservations for ABWA's commitment of rooms must be received by April 22, 2010. I hope we can have strong attendance and representation from Oceanside!

I look forward to hearing our guest speaker, Dr. Marie Benoit and seeing everyone at our next meeting on February 23!

FEBRUARY FEATURED SPEAKER

Marie Benoit, Ph.D.

Marie Benoit, Ph.D., a former tenured professor at McNeese State University, Lake Charles, Louisiana, went on to become a successful entrepreneur for over 20 years with her own training company based in Northern Virginia. Marie has conducted countless workshops for professionals in the workplace, and has taught thousands of corporate executives how to improve their bottom line. Having earned her B.S. and M.S. degrees at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, Louisiana and her doctorate at the University of North Texas, Marie has impressive credentials that translate complex subjects into simple terms that anyone can understand.

Today her mission is much more personal: to put a dent in the health crisis in America, one presentation at a time. Have you ever questioned how or why the processing of foods is something every person should understand but the topic is too complicated? Marie can assist in bridging this gap.

What are antioxidants? Free radicals...? What do these words really mean and why should we care? With the right perspective and knowledge you can make informed choices.

If living longer, feeling better, and looking younger is of interest to you, your co-workers and employees, then don't miss Dr. Benoit's informative and entertaining presentation entitled: Discover the Power of Healthy Chocolate!

MEMBER PROFILE

Cathy Bucklin

Cathy Bucklin is the owner of Elmo's Barber and Beauty Salon located at 1363 Cypress Avenue in Melbourne. Named after a favorite family pet, Elmo's Barber and Beauty Salon has established a reputation with local customers, especially veterans. In addition to offering generous discounts to veterans, Cathy has been a long-term volunteer at a local Veterans of Foreign Wars

(VFW) Chapter. Cathy has six close relatives who have served to defend America., and believes that making veterans feel welcome and appreciated not only improves her bottom line, but also is the right thing to do.

After the tragic events of September 11, 2001, Cathy's business, like many businesses, took a turn for the worse. Even though many small businesses closed their doors, Cathy refused to surrender to the circumstances. Instead, she refocused her marketing efforts and constantly worked to improve her business networks and marketing efforts.

Refusing to be dissuaded by yet another tragic event, the cancer related death of her fiancé, Cathy moved forward in her attempt to continue building her dreams. "It was a hard time to go through personally - a lot of the older veterans were really there for me." This difficult time in Cathy's life sparked her motivation to offer house calls in private homes and nursing facilities. She realized how much of a demand there is for this service and how grateful homebound clients and family members are for her compassionate services.

If overcoming obstacles and maintaining a positive attitude in spite of adversity is the American way, then Cathy sets a fine example for all of us. Upon being asked if she would do anything differently, Cathy mentions the support and training she received at the Brevard Community College SBDC. "I only wish I had taken more courses and used more of the free resources that they make available."

Cathy is an active member and supporter of the VFW, a past president of Oceanside Charter Chapter, and a member of the Melbourne-Palm Bay Chamber of Commerce, the American Cancer Society (Locks of Love) and the March Of Dimes. In 2007 Cathy was nominated for Business of the Year with the Brevard County Status of Women. Cathy is also a Home Health Aide and is a Certified Nursing Assistant with three years of nursing school experience.

"That's why I got into this business. I have something unique and special I can give to these people."
